Arkansas Political Campaigns to Get Started Next Week

Regular Scheduled Speaking Itineraries Are Being Announced

12 FOR GOVERNOR

All Candidates to Conduct Active Campaigns for Next Sixty Days

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—The political campaign proper will be put in high gear the coming week at the largest number of candidates in years perfects organizations and takes the field with regularly scheduled speaking itineraries.

The governors campaign, with 12 candidates, will be put in complete motion with the opening addresses of four aspirants.

Judge J. M. Futrell of Paragould, opens his campaign at Pine Bluff Tuesday evening, and Leonard Caudle, Greenwood, began his race with an opening address in North Little Rock Wednesday evening.

Dwight H. Blackwood, chairman of the state highway commission, one of the last to enter but the first to establish headquarters, opens at Prescott Friday evening. Circuit Judge Richard M. Mann of Little Rock, probably will begin with a speech next week, but the exact date and place have not been decided upon.

Other candidates who have already opened their campaigns are: Judge S. M. Bone, Batesville; Dan W. Johnston, Clarksville; Judge A. B. Priddy, Russellville; State Controller Howard A. Reed, Heber Springs; Former Governor Tow J. Terral, Little Rock; Charles A. Walls, Lonoke; W. P. Wilson, Little Rock, and Arley P. Woodrow, Mena.

Woodrow said he would not open headquarters, and would act as his own campaign and publicity manager.

Senate Campaign Starts

The United States senatorial campaign has been under way for weeks, with only Senator Hattie W. Caraway of Jonesboro, seeking re-election for the long term, the only one of seven candidates actively at work among the voters. Mr. Caraway has not announced her campaign plans, but her friends assumed she will take the stump as soon as her duties permit.

The only wet candidate for the senate—Former Sheriff W. G. Hutton of Little Rock—denounced the Eighteenth amendment in his opening address last Wednesday at Beebe, and advocated a plan of liquor control whereby each state could remain dry or become wet, at its option.

Former Governor Charles H. Brough has been speaking several times daily, covering more than two-thirds of the 75 counties since he began his campaign at Fayetteville two months ago. Likewise, Associate Justice W. F. Kirby of the supreme court and former United States senator; National Committeeman Vincent M. Miles of Fort Smith; O. L. Bodenhamer, El Dorado, former national commander of the American Legion; and Melbourne M. Martin, Little Rock attorney, are conducting their campaigns vigorously.

Seven For Lt. Governor

Seven candidates are producing an already spirited race for lieutenant governor. Their campaign headquarters are beginning to buzz here, while every section of the state has been visited by at least one of the candidates.

Lieut. Gov. Lawrence Wilson of Camden, is opposed for re-election by former Lieut. Gov. Lee Cazart, of Lamar. Former Senators Paul Crabbe of Little Rock and Fred Hutto of England; and Senator Joe W. Kinzey, Magnet, County Judge R. F. Milwee of Brinkley and J. Rosser Venable, Little Rock, complete the roster of candidates for that office.

Comparatively little activity in the field has been started by candidates for other state offices, but these races, too, will grow warm within a few days.

Congressional races have been devoid of fireworks so far, but several interesting campaigns are promised. The contests in six districts, and only Congressmen W. J. Drive of Osceola, in the first district, is unopposed for re-election. Mrs. Effie Gene Wingo will not seek re-election from the fourth district, leaving it to a fight between five candidates—State Insurance Commissioner A. D. Dulancy of Ashdown; Ben Cravens, Fort Smith; Harvey McGeehe, Van Buren; Seth Reynolds, Ashdown, and W. E. Zeuch, Mena.

Cold On Hot Dogs?

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—A lot of people have written to Col. D. C. Chapman, chairman of New Found Gap Park, requesting permission to erect hot dog stands in the Gap, the highest spot in the park accessible by highway. Col. Chapman reports that "the government absolutely forbids it."

Harry Fleisher—Lindbergh Kidnap Suspect—Surrenders!

Harry Fleisher, alleged trigger-man of the notorious Detroit "Purple Gang," is shown above as he surrendered to the Wayne County, Mich., prosecutor. New Jersey officials immediately rushed two investigators to Detroit to question Fleisher in connection with the kidnaping of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr. Fleisher had been hunted for nearly a year as the alleged murderer of three rival gangsters during a gang conference. Police said members of the "Purple Gang" harassed because of the hunt for Fleisher, ordered him to surrender.

Executed Killer's Son Begins Term

Albert Howell Convicted of Washington County Bank Robbery

LITTLE ROCK.—Students of sociology who believe in the influence of heredity should find an interesting study in Albert Howell, not yet 18, who was received at the Little Rock branch of the penitentiary Friday. He is under sentence of 10 years for participation in the robbery of the Bank of Prairie Grove, Washington county, April 1.

He is the son of William H. Howell, who was put to death in the electric chair in the Arkansas penitentiary for the wanton killing of three persons at the Crawford County Infirmary several years ago.

He is the brother of Robert Howell, ex-convict, who was shot to death in the robbery of a California bank some time ago.

He also is the brother of John Howell, who is serving 21 years in the San Quentin (Cal.) penitentiary for participation in the same bank robbery in which Robert was killed.

Albert Howell and Earl Long pleaded guilty to the Prairie Grove bank robbery several days ago and each was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment.

The jinx that apparently pursues the Howell family still is in evidence Friday. While Deputy Sheriffs Dan Hamilton and one Little with Howell and Long and a patient for the state hospital for Nervous Diseases, their auto turned over on a curve near Menifee, Faulkner county.

Student Aviators Injured in Crash

Fall at Poplar Bluff While En Route for Graham Funeral

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo.—Officials of the Von Hoffman Aircraft School at Robertson, Mo., are en route here to conduct an investigation into an airplane crash Friday which caused injury to a pilot and two student aviators.

One of the students may die. They were attending school at Robertson. The trio, en route from St. Louis to Little Rock, where they planned to attend the funeral Saturday of A. J. Graham, a friend, who was killed Wednesday, crashed about three miles south of Poplar Bluff on the Tom Bickell farm.

At a hospital where they were taken, Kenneth Lansing, 23, the pilot, said he was trying to land to refuel the plane when he struck a cross air current and lost control of the plane. One wing hit the ground and the plane leaped 25 feet into the air and landed upside down. Lansing, whose home is in New York, suffered serious injuries on his face and head.

Max Schneider, 21, of Shenandoah, Iowa, was most seriously hurt. He has a fractured skull. Brooks McElroy, 21, Scotia, N. Y., suffered a fractured leg and possible internal injuries.

The three were flying a Travelair plane which was badly damaged.

A. B. Banks to Have Another Hearing

Governor to Receive Petitions for Pardon for Ex-Financier

LITTLE ROCK.—Governor Farnell intends to hold a hearing Monday on petitions for a pardon for A. B. Banks of Fordyce, former financier, who was sentenced to a year's imprisonment for accepting a deposit in the insolvent American Exchange Trust Company of which he was president.

Petition have been circulated in several counties in south Arkansas and one was brought to Little Rock this week for additional signatures. Harry E. Meeks, one of Banks' lawyers, said that several petitions had been circulated.

Banks in a statement at Fordyce shortly after the governor had granted a stay of sentence, said that he would make another request for executive clemency at the expiration of the stay. Governor Farnell said when he granted the stay that he would not grant an extension. The governor is out of the city and is not scheduled to return to his office before Monday.

Banks was convicted in the Pulaski circuit court last year. He appealed and the Supreme Court upheld the sentence.

She also was re-elected committeewoman at the recent state convention. She was the first convention delegate named by the convention.

A. J. Russell of Little Rock is chairman of the State Central committee and United States internal revenue collector for Arkansas. He has been

Dynamite Found in Encampment of Bonus Marchers

Officers Decline to Give Any Comment on Seizure

1200 MEN IN THE CITY

Several Thousand More Men Reported to Be En Route

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Washington police Saturday destroyed a small quantity of dynamite, discovered by bonus seeking war veterans in one of their encampments.

Officers of the police crime prevention squad declined to comment on the seizure or say whether they linked it with communist activities among the veterans.

Meanwhile veteran leaders reported that there were twelve thousand men now here.

Veterans in Kentucky

NEWPORT, Ky.—(P)—Refreshed while guests of Newport, the Lone Star expedition of 550 bonus marchers Friday night awaited an eastbound freight train at Silver Grove, Ky., to continue their trip to Washington.

The marchers escorted from Cincinnati late in the day after police had ordered them from a freight train in the B. and O. yards, were transported to Silver Grove, near here, in trucks furnished by Newport and Campbell county.

They were expecting a Chesapeake and Ohio freight early Saturday, aboard which they hoped to ride to Parkersburg, W. Va.

Long's Tax Bills Ready For Allen

Louisiana Senate Passes $4,000,000 Revenue Bill, House Approves

BATON ROUGE, La.—(P)—Again demonstrating why he is called "Louisiana's Kingfish," United States Senator Huey P. Long Friday strode about the state senate chamber while the body suspended its rules to give final approval to four long-sponsored state administration tax bills by overwhelming votes.

Within a half hour, the House concurred in Senate amendments preparatory to sending the bills to Gov. O. K. Allen for signature, thus completing the senator's successful drive to put the bills through the legislature in near-record time.

Senator Long returned from Washington last week to take charge of the bills taxing tobacco, soft drinks, insurance premiums and electric power at rates designed to bring in $4,000,000 new revenues to balance the biennial budget. The senator kept the measures moving through the legislative machinery at quick tempo, rushing them through the House Ways and Means Committee a few hours after their introduction and smothering opposition with sarcasm and quick repartee at open hearings.

In the midst of the bill-pushing drive, a group of representatives offered resolutions asking the senator to "quit meddling" with the legislature and resume his Senate seat in Washington but the resolutions were tabled in the House.

The largest vote mustered against any of the tax bills Friday was eight, cast against the soft drink tax, as Senator Long looked on smilingly. Governor Allen listened in on the voting through a loud speaker connection in his private office.

Afterwards, Senator Long announced it would be "two or three days" before Governor Allen signed the bills.

Little Miss Joy Ramsey, acrobatic dancer, entertained with two dance numbers. She was accompanied by Miss Harriet Story.

Secret sessions have been held by the council but no formal action was taken until Friday. The Bowie county grand jury began investigation of the reports Friday and still is in session. Its foreman said that the investigation probably will continue to next week.

Arkansas Republican Delegates Leave Sunday

Group to Arrive in Chicago Monday for National Convention—Action on Prohibition Not Announced. Instructed to Support Hoover

By J. C. STARK
Associated Press Staff Correspondent

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—With the Arkansas Republican delegation ready to leave Sunday for the national convention in Chicago, developments of the past few days indicate its stand on the prohibition question may not have been definitely settled by the adoption of a "bone dry" plank in the state platform at the recent state convention.

Wallace Townsend, national committeeman who probably will be chairman of the delegation, revealed this week that he privately was sounding out the delegates to determine their views on a prohibition re-submission plank which many party leaders are seeking to have written into the platform at Chicago.

His action, incidentally, was taken immediately after his return here from Washington where party leaders for some time have been seeking to draft a prohibition plank satisfactory to both the wets and dries.

Townsend left for Chicago Thursday night, however without disclosing the information he obtained from the delegates, although it was believed he had not heard from all of them.

Columbus Host to Kiwanis Club

Good Will Tour Leads Local Club Members to County Village

A large number of families whose names have added to the laurels of Hempstead county for generations, and a local rain shower, greeted the Kiwanis good-will trippers to Columbus Friday night. This was one of a series of weekly visits to neighboring communities, a work which may be extended to every corner of the county this summer.

Asking for a return to the church, foundation and inspiration of all the things which has made this nation great, was the principal feature of the talk made by John P. Cox, featured speaker of the evening. Mr. Cox quoted Roger Babson, famed statistician and business expert, as authority for the need of such a movement as one way out of the present national crisis.

R. E. Jackson, principal of the Columbus school, extended a warm welcome to the Kiwanis club visitors.

A delightful musical program was rendered by the Hope High School glee club double quartet, under the very capable direction of Mrs. John Wellborn, their leader. Among the beautiful numbers were a group of negro spirituals, among them, "I Ain't Gwine Study War Any More," "Go Down, Moses," and "The Kerry Dance" by Melloy. The octet was composed of the following: Misses Denola Dodson, Susie Hendrix, Minnie Padgett, and Lenna Jones, and Messrs. Otis Rowe, Hilburn Graves, Alonzo and Olander Beck. The boys' quartet sang several plantation melodies which were splendidly received. Hilburn Graves entertained with a saxophone solo, "Romance" in a finished manner.

Little Miss Joy Ramsey, acrobatic dancer, entertained with two dance numbers. She was accompanied by Miss Harriet Story.

Secretary "Smiles" Strasser served as program chairman. He urged his hearers to attend the experiment farm annual visiting day, and thanked the people of Columbus for responding to the invitation of the Kiwanis club.

A guest of the club was Miss Marian Glass, sister of Mrs. Wellborn, and who is teacher of Art and Mathematics in Hot Springs High School.

Secret sessions have been held by the council but no formal action was taken until Friday. The Bowie county grand jury began investigation of the reports Friday and still is in session. Its foreman said that the investigation probably will continue to next week.

E. G. Coop said he had been in the transfer business for so long that he could not comprehend entering any other field, if he had his life to live over again. He has been in this business in Hope for more than 20 years, he said.

Miss Harriet Story, club pianist, entertained with two delightful songs. She was accompanied by Miss Harriet Pritchard.

Ed L. Rephan had charge of the program. It was announced that next week's program would be in the hands of E. G. Coop.

Police Question Ernest Brinkert About Kidnaping

Edna Sharpe, Sister of Victim, in England—Denies Knowledge of Crime

LADDER IS MISSING

Ex-Convict Quit Job on March First—Owner Misses Ladder

TRENTON, N. J.—(P)—An official afternoon bulletin on the Lindbergh case indicated that the police are investigating a possibility that some of the $50,000 ransom paid by Dr. John F. Condon, had passed through the hands of Violet Sharpe, who committed suicide Friday afternoon or through the hands of some of her associates.

The Arkansas delegation, which is instructed to support President Hoover for renomination, will arrive in Chicago early Monday morning, the day before the national convention opens.

A delegation caucus will be held Monday to elect the chairman, work out committee assignments, and dispose of other preliminaries.

The platform committee will be one of the most important. This state will have one member and Townsend may be given this committee assignment.

Most of the delegates and alternates will leave at 3:05 p. m. Sunday on a special car of the Missouri Pacific. Some delegates, however, already have left and others are motoring through.

George L. Mallory, United States marshal here and one of the four delegates at large, left early in the week to represent Townsend at a meeting of the republican national committee.

C. H. Carlton, living near Bodewy in the West of Nevada county, brought a cotton bloom to Hope Saturday. This bloom is the first reported this year.

Mr. Carlton said that he planted his cotton on April 16, and had fertilized it well. He reported that crops in that section were in good condition.

Sister in England

STOURBRIDGE, Eng.—(P)—Edna Sharpe, whose sister, Violet Sharpe, committed suicide in the Morrow home in Englewood, N. J., denied Saturday that she knew anything about the kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby and added "What is more I'm sure my sister Violet knew nothing about it either."

She said that the experiences of police questioning had caused her sister to break down.

Misses Ladder

MAMARONECK, N. Y.—(P)—Police here said that Claude W. Moody, real estate man has declared that he suspects the ladder used to enter the Lindbergh nursery, last March 1, was stolen from the Moody grounds.

Ernest Brinkert, latest suspect in the case, gave up his job as butler for the Moody family on the day of March 1.

Both Sides Rest in Means' Trial

Defense Offers No Testimony in Embezzlement, Larceny Case

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Testimony in the trial of Gaston B. Means on charges of larceny and embezzlement of $104,000 from Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean in a weird plan to ransom the Lindbergh baby ended abruptly Friday without the defense presenting a single witness.

Saturday prosecution and defense attorneys will discuss with the court instructions to the jury and Monday final arguments will be made.

The defense's resting of the case came after two set-backs had been experienced by the lawyer, T. Morris Wampler, in motions to Justice James M. French and a third motion had been taken under advisement.

Justice Proctor overruled a motion by defense that the government elect which two of the four counts upon which the former Department of Justice agent was indicted will be presented to the jury. The counts against Means are larceny of $100,000, embezzlement of $100,000, larceny of $4,000, and embezzlement of $4,000.

The second motion overruled was for a directed verdict on the first three counts. The motion taken under advisement by the justice was for a directed verdict on the fourth count, that of embezzlement of $4,000.

The prosecution rested its case shortly after noon, after it had called a number of witnesses. Among these were Col. Robert M. Guggenheim, who

The Junkers Return

NEWSPAPERS in Paris have been discovering a revival of the old spiked-helmet, 1914 brand of German imperialism lately.

With Von Papen sitting in the chancellery at Berlin, with the stiff-necked, die-hard Junker aristocracy laying strong hands on the government and with grotesque Hitler rising behind like a black cloud, it is quite evident that the French editors are just about right.

Germany is turning once more to the class that led it up to and into the war. And in that fact there is an indication of the woeful way in which the world at large has failed to handle an acute problem.

The imperialism that guided German policy under the Hohenzollerns was not peculiar to Germany, of course. Every large European nation was more or less infected. But Germany seems to have had the worst case, and the things that happened from 1914 to 1918 proved rather clearly that that imperialistic attitude, and the actions which it gives rise to, are extremely dangerous to the world's well being.

After the armistice in 1918 imperialism went reeling. It is the fashion now to sneer at that "make the world safe for democracy" slogan of war days; but, really, there was a whole lot in it. At the end of 1918 a long step had been taken toward accomplishment of that ideal. If the right kind of program could have been followed, imperialism would have been dead forever.

But today, nearly 14 years after the armistice, the old imperialism is returning to Berlin; and it is impossible to escape the conclusion that the world's blindness and stupidity helped to revive it.

If a fairer, less vengeful peace could have been made, if the victors had not gone beyond all reason in trying to squeeze gold out of the conquered, if a real world-wide disarmament program could have been accepted—then the old Junker imperialism would not be getting a new lease on life.

What happened in 1914 was tragic proof that world statesmanship had been incompetent. The events of this year seem to be offering us another proof.

Insull's Case

ONE of the news stories telling of Samuel Insull's retirement from guidance of his vast industrial empire contained the following highly significant paragraph:

"In the years following 1924, according to observers, he himself became imbued with a belief that a new and everlasting era of prosperity had arrived—a belief said to have been largely responsible for the present financial affairs of his utility system."

About all one can say to that is that Mr. Insull wasn't alone in his delusion. A lot of the rest of us used to feel the same way, too; and what happened to us is just about what happened to Mr. Insull. The whole country, in short, was deluded, and the country now is paying for its delusion. Mr. Insull simply typifies what befell the nation as a whole.

The Silly Season for Politics

THE St. Louis lawyer who is seeking a Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate, and whose platform calls for the payment by the federal government of $720 a year to every citizen of the country, with $240 extra for each minor, serves to remind us that the political silly season is about to open in earnest.

Every campaign always brings to light a few candidates who are willing to promise the moon itself in their appeals to the voters; but it is evident that this year is going to give us an unusual number of them.

The voters are dissatisfied, restless; they want an improvement in their condition very badly, and when they feel that way the ordinary politician outdoes himself in making promises. Probably no one will go any farther than this St. Louis candidate—it would be almost impossible; but there will be a lot of campaign promises hardly less fantastic than his.

The Philippine Problem

A WASHINGTON correspondent the other day remarked that independence for the Philippines now is virtually certain. In fact, he remarked, Congress may be in such a hurry to get out of the islands that it will cause their economic ruin.

Laying aside, for the moment, all arguments as to whether the Philippines ought to be granted their independence, it does seem fairly obvious that if they do get it the United States owes it to them to make the transition as easy as possible.

The Philippines have been a United States possession for some 30 years. If they are to be put on their own, the United States must take every precaution to make sure that chaos will not follow. American responsibility would not cease when the American flag came down, unless America had first prepared her charges for complete freedom.

OTTAWA—A huge radio hookup, taking in all of the British Empire's possessions, would do much toward cementing the different dominions together, according to a suggestion of Senator A. D. ### Police Called Out in Church Row Over Pastor BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(P)—A church row centering around efforts to oust Dr. W. T. Morgan as pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian church of suburban Norwood, sent police on the run to restore order at the church Thursday.

The disturbance took place in front of the church during an executive session of the Birmingham presbytery at which charges of "conduct unbecoming a minister," brought by members of Dr. Morgan's congregation, were being heard.

Trouble started when Fred Bringham, member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of East Lake, another suburb, collared Dr. Morgan and made a remark reflecting on the pastor's action in a business transaction.

Boys in Manhole

BOSTON.—Three small boys went down into a manhole in Lynn to catch fish that had been swarming in Moore's Brook under the street. The manhole cover had been replaced while they were in the hole, and they were imprisoned. John Murray, driving over the manhole, heard cries coming from under his car. He stopped, raised the cover and rescued the youths, who were in the last stages of fright.

An Ohio politician is advocating that horse raving be placed under state control. What is the man thinking about? He must want to destroy the last vestige of confidence in the honesty of the tracks.

Chicago Financier Commits Suicide

Brother of Former Hot Springs Man Despondent Over Business Affairs

CHICAGO.—Royal C. Vilas, financier and sportsman, stood in front of a dresser mirror in the bedroom of his country home in Glenview Thursday and shot himself in the temple. His bride, Myrtle Hoglund Vilas, 27, who had been his secretary until their marriage two weeks ago, was in the garden. About a half hour after he fired the shot she went upstairs, believing he was taking a nap, and found the body.

On the dresser was a letter on which was written: "To my wife—this letter explains everything and there is enough for the children. I don't want to write any more."

The letter said that Mr. Vilas' financial difficulties were such that five years would be required to straighten them out. The letter directed that the Northern Trust Company be designated trustee of his estate and that 25 per cent of his $310,000 insurance be given to Mrs. Vilas, the remainder to be divided between his son Royal Jr., 22, now at home, and his daughter, Virginia, 27, who is motoring in the South.

Mrs. Vilas summoned a physician and notified her husband's brother, L. H. Vilas, president of the Fyle-National Company, manufacturers of locomotive headlights, a company which his father founded. Royal Vilas was chairman of the board until a year ago. The brother said Mr. Vilas had been in ill health.

The war debt the talmost every male American is in favor of abolishing is alimony.

EXECUTED KILLER

Long was injured but the others in the party escaped. The officers commandeered another car and completed their trip to Little Rock.

Howell blames his plight on the family's ill luck. He said that he participated in the bank robbery because he needed money for his widowed mother and two sisters. He has a third sister who lives in Detroit, Michigan.

Then, after successfully perpetrating the bank robbery, he said that the money was stolen from him and the lavish spending by the second thief resulted in his arrest and the subsequent detection of Howell.

"I tried farming, but couldn't make a living for my mother, two sisters and I," he told an Arkansas Gazette reporter. "So I joined Long and another man in robbing the bank at Prairie Grove. We got about $2,800. We got away all right, abandoned the auto in which we had left town and divided the money. I got a little more than $600 for my share. I hurried home, then hid the money under the top of a fallen tree in the woods about two miles from home. Several days later, I went to get some of the money and found it gone.

"I couldn't imagine what had become of it but a short time later, I found out. The officers arrested a fellow, who I supposed was a friend of mine, because he was spending money recklessly. I suppose the officers gave him the works and he told them that he saw me hide the money under the tree top and took it as soon as I was out of sight. Of course, the officers arrested me. That was about three weeks ago. Last week they caught Long and we both pleaded guilty."

Long's injuries apparently are not serious although he required assistance in walking through the penitentiary gates. He was attended by a physician at the prison.

Pair Found Dead Near Black Rock

Both Apparently Victims of Suicide Pact, Officers Say

BLACK ROCK.—The bodies of a man and a woman, who apparently had died as the result of a suicide pact, were found Thursday afternoon by J. W. Brown in a Chevrolet coach at Flat Creek spring on Highway 25, two miles west of Black Rock. Notes found with the bodies indicated that the woman was Mrs. Marguerite Staples, aged 27, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wheeler of Piggoth, and the man was Fred Beatty, 34.

The man had been shot in the temple and apparently had died instantly. He was slumped in the rear seat of the automobile. The woman was in the front seat with a bullet hole in the center of her forehead and a 25-caliber automatic pistol lay near her, indicating that she had done the shooting. She still was alive when Brown reached the scene, but died shortly afterward. It was believed that the shooting had taken place about midnight Wednesday.

Two letters, one addressed to Mrs. Wheeler, were found in the car. They said that the couple had decided, since they couldn't live together, to cease living. The letters requested that the bodies be buried together.

A coroner's jury assembled by Coroner W. E. Archer returned a verdict that the man and woman had died as the result of gunshot wounds inflicted "by parties unknown to the jury."

A rural mail carrier said he had seen the couple in the automobile Wednesday and that a child was with them. That caused wonderment as to what might have happened to the child, and speculation on the possibility that both the man and woman had been murdered.

Political writers are having a lot to say about what Congress has done for the "vets." Haven't they gotten "vets" and "votes" confused?

said he had been contacted to take delivery of the kidnapped son of Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh; Capt. Emory S. Land, a relative of Lindbergh's, and Robert F. Fleming, real estate man from Edgemont, Mo., who said he arranged the appointment between Colonel Guggenheim and Means.

Both Guggenheim and Fleming said they had conferred with Means in the library of Fleming's home four days after the Lindbergh child was kidnapped. They added the meeting was arranged at Means' request, and that he told them the kidnap plot had been carried out by persons in league with a convict friend of his whom he had met in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Fleming quoted Means, in answer to a question as to what his interest in the case was, as saying that by engineering the return of the baby he would "establish himself as the eyes of the public and do business for his private detective to keep him 10 years."

BOSTON.—It what Mrs. W. B. Birch says is true, her hubby did not share the "red" with his wife.
